VISUAL: Extreme close-up: A hand tightly grips a notification letter. The paper is slightly crumpled against a blurred, water-seeping wall.

VOICEOVER / AUDIO: (No dialogue)

SCENE 2

VISUAL: The hand trembles slightly. The 'Joint Office' logo on the envelope comes into sharp, clear focus.

VOICEOVER / AUDIO: (Male, Professional tone): "Received a notification letter..."

SCENE 3

VISUAL: The hand lets go as the camera rapidly pulls back. An infrared hotspot flashes on the wall.

VOICEOVER / AUDIO: "Stage one infrared has already locked onto the source."

SCENE 4

VISUAL: A glowing orange arrow pops up, pointing accurately at the hottest spot, emitting a sharp 'beep' sound.

VOICEOVER / AUDIO: "Visible at a glance, no need to guess."

SCENE 5

VISUAL: A semi-transparent tag floats next to the arrow: '$0 Testing Fee'.

VOICEOVER / AUDIO: "Self-repair within the time limit, zero testing fee."

SCENE 6

VISUAL: A time progress bar shifts from green to orange, rapidly counting down.

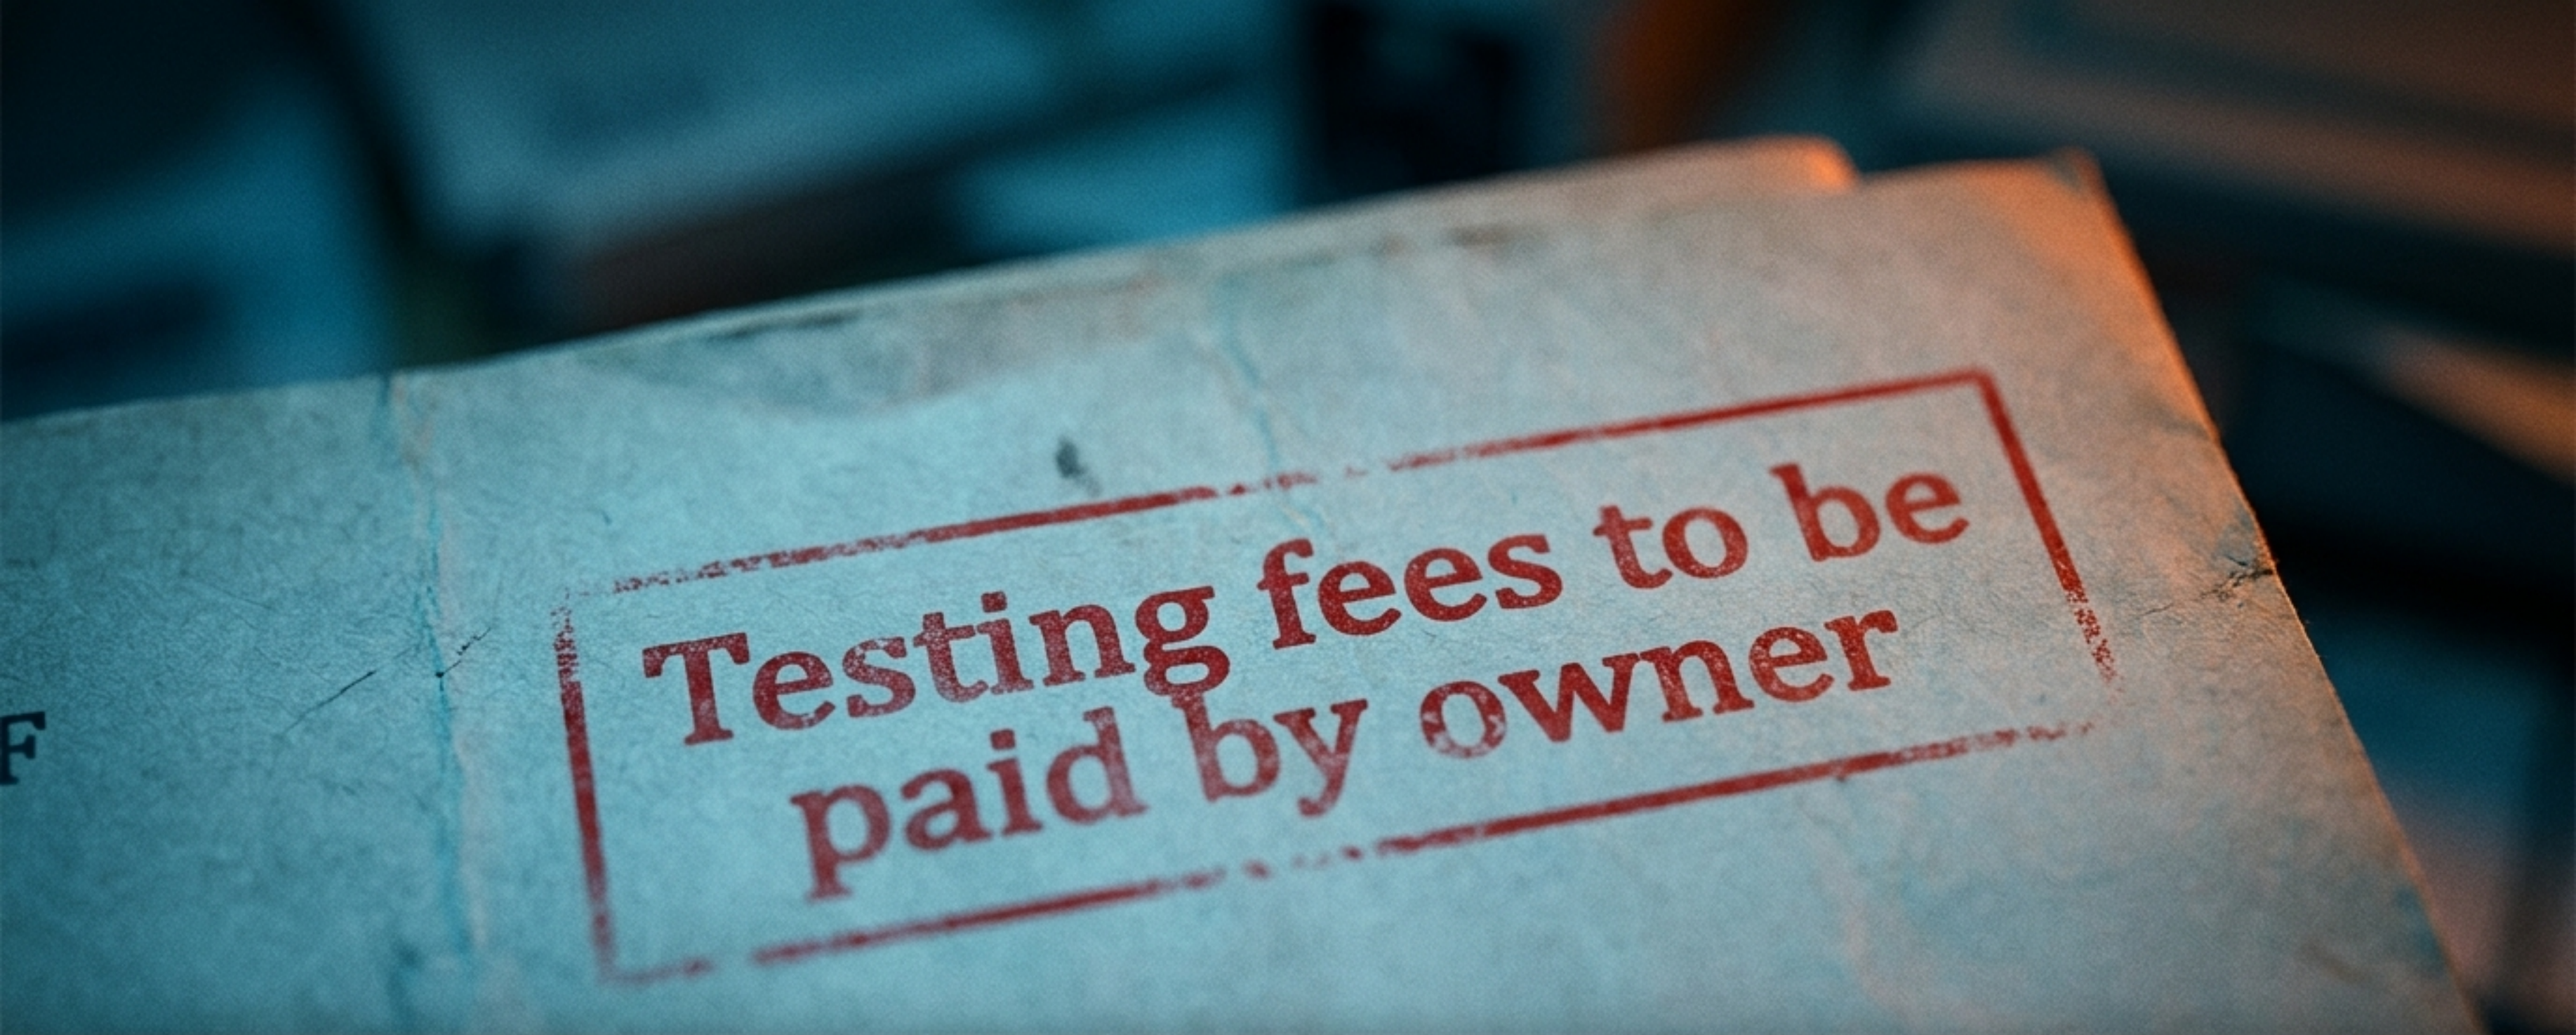

VOICEOVER / AUDIO: "If you drag it out..."

SCENE 7

VISUAL: The screen instantly 'tears'. The left arrow dims, while the right side floods with stacking documents, testing checklists, and fee settlement bills.

VOICEOVER / AUDIO: 'The procedures will commence synchronously.'

Testing fees to be paid by owner

SCENE 8

VISUAL: The fee settlement bill transitions from blurred to clear, revealing glaring red text: 'Testing fees to be paid by owner'.

VOICEOVER / AUDIO: "You'll have to pay the testing fees yourself."

SCENE 9

VISUAL: The arrow flashes again, locking onto the exact same hotspot. The adjacent tag turns red.

VOICEOVER / AUDIO: 'One arrow locks the leak; drag past the deadline and the procedures will catch up.'
