

Thermal Catch: API Storyboard Treatment

A 10-Scene Visual Pitch for the Joint Office Leak Detection Campaign

Scene: 01
The Tech Intro

Action:
A black screen flashes the title Thermal Catch, immediately cutting to the bright public housing corridor. The JO staff member strides toward the unit holding the thermal camera.

Voiceover / Subtitle:
Hidden leaks, how do we spot them?

Scene: 02
The Thermal
Lock-on

Action:
Close-up on the thermal device. The screen displays a blue cool zone that transforms into a bright red hot spot, effectively locking onto the hidden water pipe.

Voiceover / Subtitle:
One sweep of infrared, the invisible is revealed.

Scene: 03
Cause and Effect

Action:
Split-screen layout. Left: The thermal camera's red alert flashes. Right: The flat owner's ceiling begins to drip water.

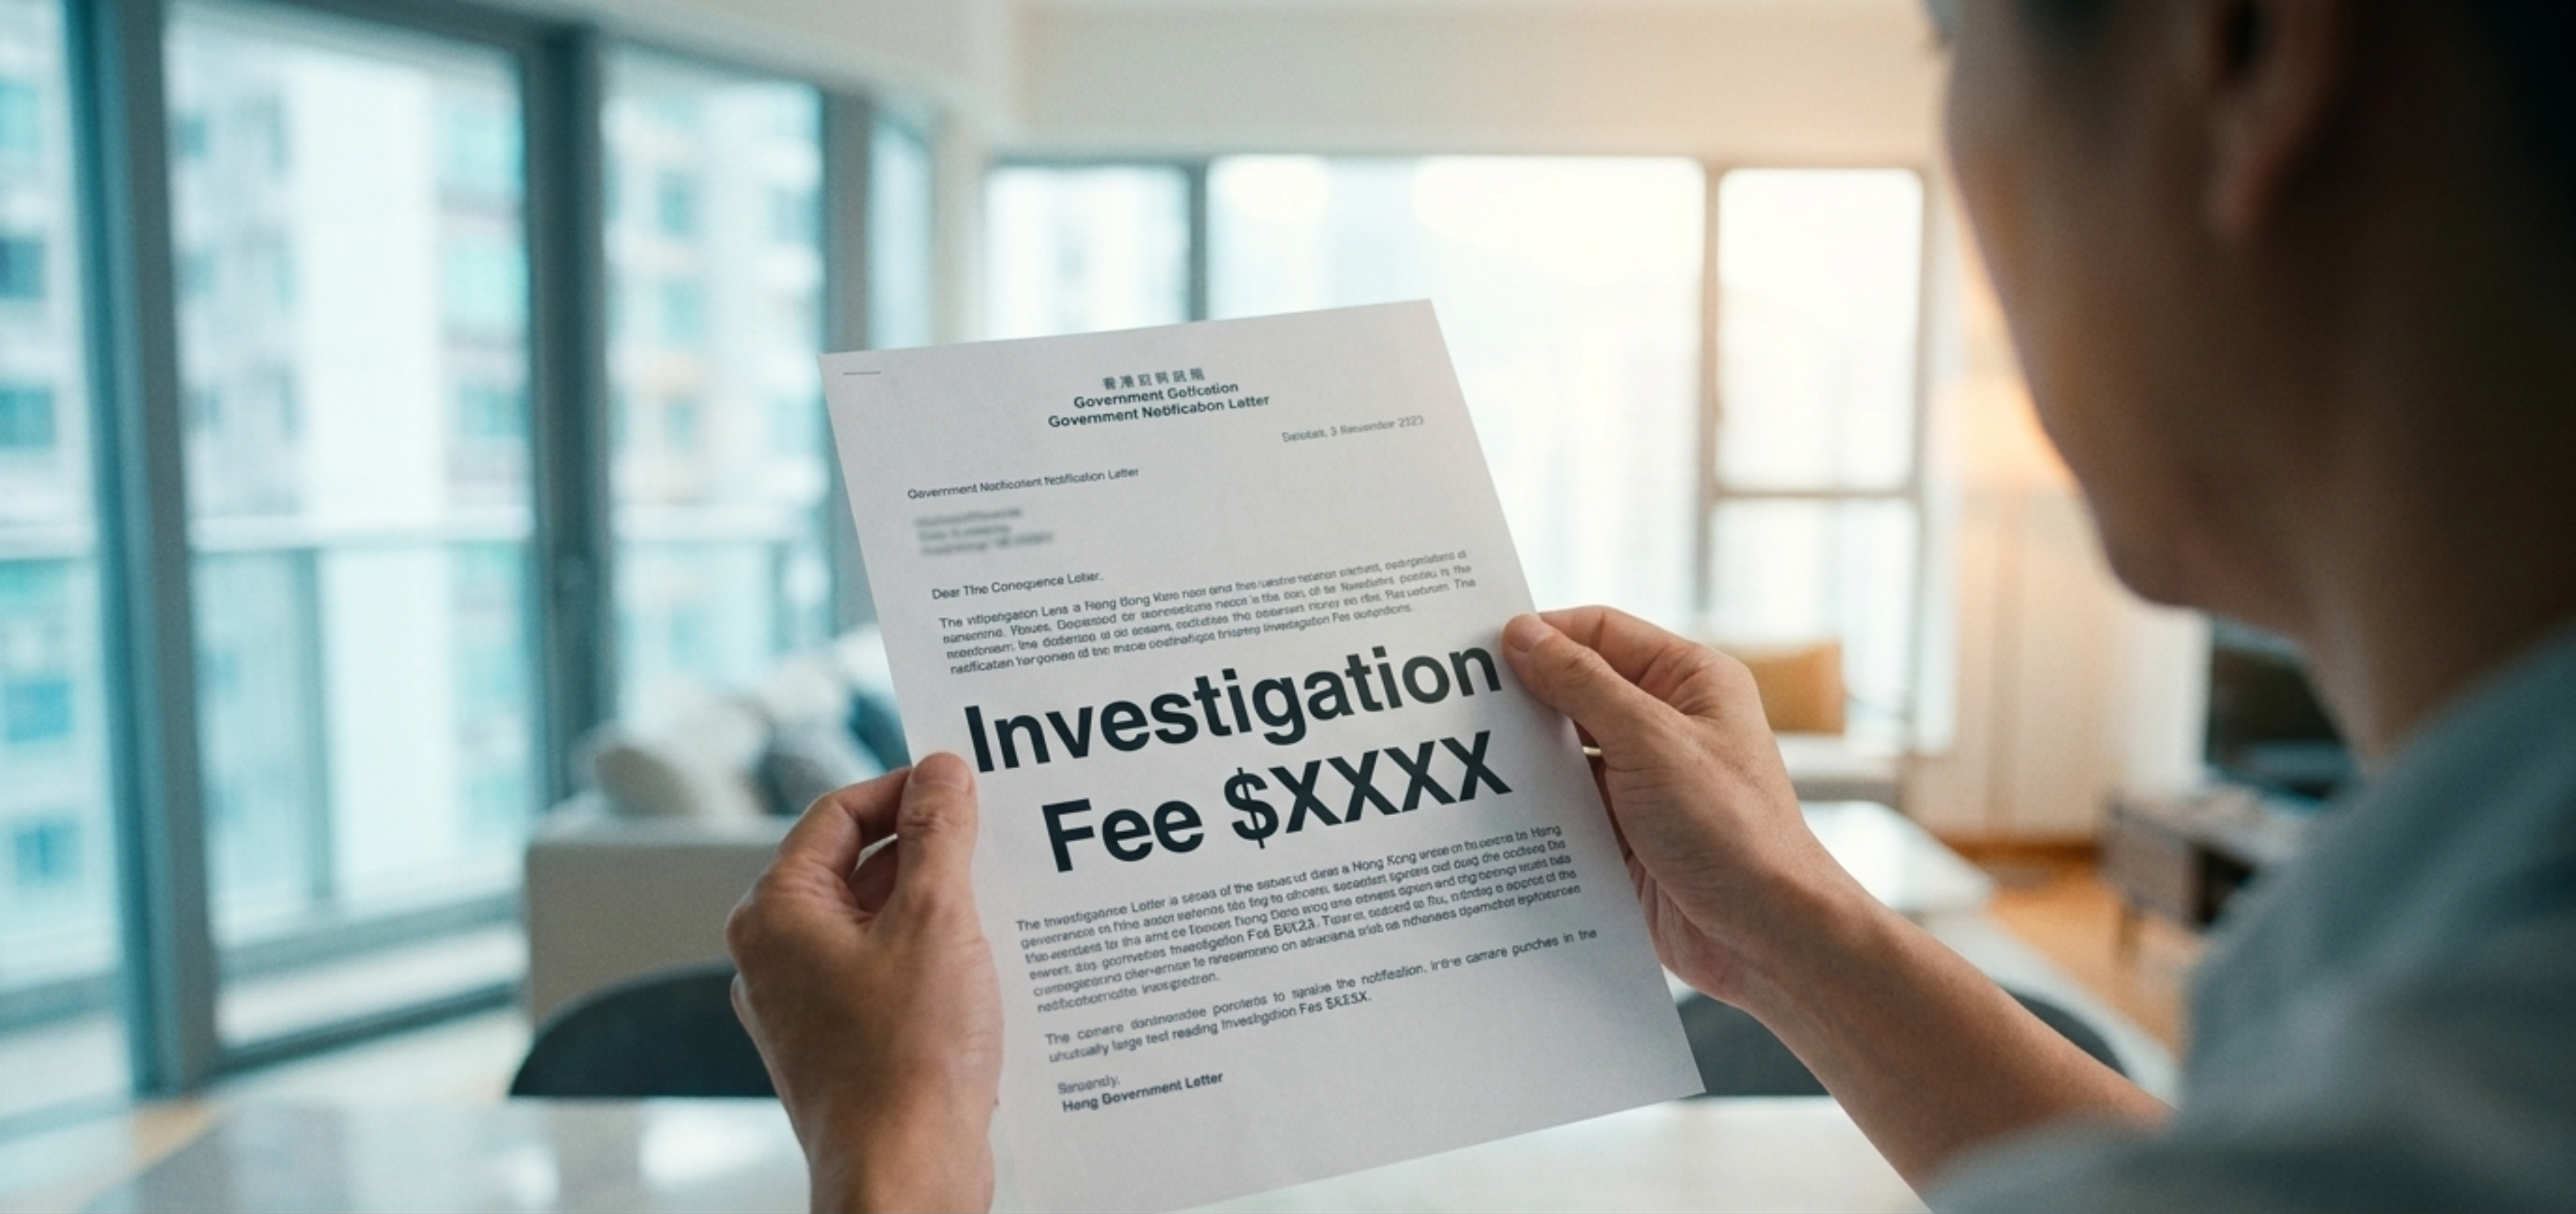

Voiceover / Subtitle:
The source of the leak, instantly exposed.

Scene: 04
Undeniable
Evidence

Action:
The JO staff turns the thermal camera screen toward the owner. The red hot spot on the screen corresponds perfectly with the ceiling leak behind them.

Voiceover / Subtitle:
Faced with the evidence, there is no denying it.

Scene: 05
The Consequence Letter

Action: The owner frowns as they receive the notification letter. The camera punches in on the unusually large text reading Investigation Fee $XXXX.

Voiceover / Subtitle:
When the notice arrives, what will you do?

Scene: 06
The Dismissal

Action:
The owner tosses the letter aside and turns to walk away. The letter flutters to the floor.

Voiceover / Subtitle:
Think you can delay it day by day?

Scene: 07

Escalation Time-Lapse

Action:

Time-lapse sequence. Calendar pages fly by rapidly. The leak stain expands, and the red thermal hotspot visually spreads across the ceiling.

Voiceover / Subtitle:

Delay too long, and you bear the cost.

Scene: 08
The Financial Hit

Action:
Split-screen returns. Left: The thermal camera flashes red continuously. Right: The owner looks on in shock at a bank deduction notification on their phone.

Voiceover / Subtitle:
One sweep of infrared, leaks have nowhere to hide.

Scene: 09 / The Cost of Ignorance

Action: Extreme close-up of the letter. A bold red circle highlights the phrase Pay your own investigation fee and the final amount.

Voiceover / Subtitle: Ignore the notice, and bear the cost yourself!

Thermal Catch

Scene: 10
The Wrap Up

Action:
The JO staff packs away the thermal camera. The edges of the screen fade to black, highlighting the official campaign slogan in the center.

Voiceover / Subtitle:
One sweep of infrared, leaks have nowhere to hide; ignore the notice, and bear the cost yourself!
